Birds Guard Our Trees.
We can spray orchards and shade trees with poisonous insecticides, but we would stand aghast at the impossible task of spraying all the trees in all the woods, says the American Forestry Magazine. We must perforce depend on the natural enemies of insects to protect our forests. Fortunately, birds and other foes of insects, wherever their numbers are sufficient, act as effective forest guardians.

In 1860
In Crinoline bright,

ANCIENT SHOP SOLD

Nothing but Drugs Ever Sold in This London Pharmacy.

Worshipful Company of Apothecaries Disposes of Its Historic Shop in City of London—Established in Seventeenth Century.

London.—The Worshipful Company of Apothecaries has sold its ancient shop to a London firm of druggists.

It has been carried on by this city company since early in the Seventeenth century and was, as it were, the classic druggist's shop, with its discreet window of frosted glass—the apothecaries did not display their wares—the shop forms, the plain facade behind which is hidden a dim old courtyard and then the hall and other rooms of the society. Almost next door, in Water Lane, was the Blackfriars theater, where Shakespeare and Burbage played.

The society's prescriptions, formulas and special preparations—many of them centuries old—are taken over by the new owners. The little factory where the society makes drugs wholesale, chiefly on government orders, has not changed hands yet.

The shop is a spacious place, lined with mellow-looking old bottles, gleaming warmly with gilt and color. You look in vain for patent medicines or any paraphernalia of the modern chemist. It is all drugs and nothing but drugs, and people who come in with prescriptions are usually known and addressed by their names. The shop is leisurely and quiet, as befits its pedigree. Many customers are sorry that the company should be giving up its useful service of selling sound drugs in these days when the city companies rarely still perform their original functions.

In the old days no apothecary could open a shop in the city without a license from the Apothecaries' Hall, nor could he sell drugs that had not been duly tested at the hall.

The old charter gives the company the right to burn unwholesome drugs in front of the offender's door. The company is one of three bodies entitled to grant a medical degree. In the early Eighteenth century there was a fierce quarrel between the physicians and the apothecaries over this, and Doctor Garth in his dispensary spoke rudely of the Apothecaries' Hall as the place "where tyros take the freedom out to kill."

KEEPS SECRETS FOR SENATE

GETS BRIDE THROUGH APPLE

Florida Man Weds Daughter of Orchardist Who Wrote Her Name on Wrapper.

Wenatchee, Wash.—A girl's name on the wrapper of a northwest apple, read by the owner of an orange grove in Florida, resulted in the marriage here of Amos Hemingway, Inverness, Fla., and Beth Tilley, daughter of George Tilley, orchardist.

Last fall, while packing apples on her father's ranch, Beth wrote her name and address on several wrappers and added: "Who reads this, please write."

Hemingway bought the box of apples during Christmas week in Florida. He read, came and conquered.

ESKIMO CENSUS BEING TAKEN

Canada's Mounted Police Facing Hard Task Counting Noses in Far North.

Edmonton, Alberta.—There probably are not more than 3,000 Eskimos scattered across the Arctic and sub-Arctic regions of Canada, but they have to be counted to comply with the law. The Royal Canadian mounted police are still numbering these scattered tribes. The first batch of mail received here from the Far North shows that last August there were 1,364 from Coronation gulf to the Alaskan boundary.

MEXICO PICKING UP

Remarkable Progress Being Made in Overcoming Illiteracy.

Night Schools in Capital Have Taught Many Persons to Read and Write—Laboring Class is Deeply Interested.

Mexico City.—Remarkable progress is being made in overcoming illiteracy in the capital, according to information obtained from the department of public education of the federal government.

During the first three months of the present year approximately 15,000 persons of the lower class were taught to read and write. This educational work is being carried on largely by means of night schools, which are of themselves something of a novelty in Mexico.

It is stated that interest on the part of the laboring class in this educational work is unbounded. They crowd the schools to full capacity and there are hundreds who cannot as yet be taken care of on account of the lack of teachers and other facilities. Men and women of middle age vie with sandal-footed youths to obtain enough instruction to enable them to read and write. In one of the larger schools there is an average attendance of 800 persons.

The teaching of the fundamentals, which is being done in the schools, is supplemented by a series of educational lectures that are given in moving picture theaters on Sundays. So successful has been this plan of teaching the lowly natives the rudiments of reading and writing in this city that the department of public education plans to extend the work to all of the larger cities and many of the smaller communities of the country.

President Alvaro Obregon has shown a keen interest in this new phase of education and has pledged to provide the necessary financial means for carrying it forward.

STUNG BY BEE, DIES IN HOUR

Apoplexy Following Shock Kills New Jersey Farmer Afflicted With Weak Heart.

Caldwell, N. J.—Stung on the right temple by a honey bee Harry Collier, a farmer living four miles from here, died half an hour later. After returning from town, where several of his friends remarked that he seemed in perfect health, Mr. Collier began chopping wood. A few minutes later he hurried to the house, telling his wife that he had been stung by a bee.

Mrs. Collier discovered the stinger and extracted it. As her husband's pain seemed to increase she set out for the nearest house to telephone for a physician while his sister, Miss Matilda Collier, applied first aid.

The sick man's neck began to swell. He soon lapsed into unconsciousness and died before a physician arrived. Coroner Thomas J. Lewis said death was due to a stroke of apoplexy caused by the shock of the insect's sting and a weak heart.

BURY WOMAN WITH 2 PILLOWS

New York Spinster Provided $1 Each for Relatives; Gives Money to Cripples.

New York.—The will of Miss Mary E. Connors, sixty-four, directing her friend and executor, Mrs. Katherine Rees, to bury her in a single grave with an extra pillow under her head and to see that no carriages followed the hearse, was filed for probate in the surrogate's court.

In the event of any relatives being discovered she directed that $1 be given each "because during life they had no affection for me." No relatives have been heard of by Mrs. Rees, and under the will the residue of Miss Connors' estate after a few bequests to friends, will go to the Hospital for Ruptured and Cripples.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE

Paris People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease

The symptoms of kidney trouble are many. Disordered kidneys often excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back may ache, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighted down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better endorsed kidney remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Paris proof of their merit.

Joe Kiely, proprietor shoe repair shop, 617 Ferguson street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me a world of good and I take pleasure in recommending them to anyone suffering with kidney trouble. I was a sufferer from kidney complaint and my back ached most of the time. My kidneys were weak and the secretions were highly colored and contained sediment. I lost my sleep at night as there was no let up to the pain in my back. I got four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills at Ardery's Drug Store and used them. They rid me of the trouble entirely."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kiely had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

A MOUNTAIN HERO'S GRAVE MARKED

He has written his name where all can read, and at no time can human hands efface. Thus reads a portion of an inscription which appears on a marker which will be erected at the grave of Henry Hurst (1762-1844), on a mountain top near the waters of Wolf creek, at the corner of Breathitt, Morgan and Wolf counties. Henry Hurst was a revolutionary soldier (the great grandfather of Sam K. Kash, of Corbin), and had some remarkable experiences in that war. He was captured by the enemy on four different occasions, making his escape after slaying his guard or guards, being a captive only a short time. He fired and blew up one of Cornwallis' magazines near Trenton and did other daring deeds to harass the enemy. After the close of the war young Hurst came to Kentucky and settled in the eastern part of the State, and lived until 1844. His wishes to be buried on the mountain top were carried out. The erection of the marker monument is at the instance of his great grandson, Sam K. Kash, who is at present holding a government position in Washington, and who was present at the exercises at the grave on July 4, on which occasion he delivered an appropriate oration at the resting place of his ancestor who was laid to rest there seventy-eight years ago.
